Spring Powerscourt's Garden Afternoon Tea

A timeless ritual, a moment of indulgence, a celebration of nature's artistry - Afternoon Tea is more than just a tradition; it is a symphony of taste, scent, and colour, savoured in the most exquisite of settings.

Steeped in history, the origins of Afternoon Tea are often credited to Anna, the Seventh Duchess of Bedford, who in the early 19th century sought a delightful respite from the long hours between lunch and dinner. What began as an intimate afternoon refreshment soon blossomed into a cherished tradition, embraced by high society and woven into the fabric of refined hospitality.

At Powerscourt, we honour this time-honoured custom with a distinctive touch - one inspired by the splendour of Powerscourt Gardens, the heart of Wicklow, the Garden of Ireland. Each element of our Afternoon Tea is a reflection of the estate's ever-changing landscape, where the scents, flavours, and hues of the season unfold in perfect harmony.

And now, we welcome the beauty of spring. As nature awakens from its slumber, the gardens burst into life—delicate blossoms unfurl in the crisp air, vibrant greenery re-emerges, and the sweet song of birds drifts through the breeze.

Our Spring Garden Afternoon Tea is an ode to this renewal, capturing the freshness of the season through carefully curated pastries, fragrant teas, and artful savouries that echo the garden's awakening.

Savour each bite, sip, and moment in the serene elegance of Powerscourt, where history, nature, and indulgence come together in perfect harmony.
